Reasons to size your skis shorter, closer to your chin

You are a beginner or intermediate skier

Your weight is lighter than average for your height

You like to make short, quick turns

Reasons to size your skis longer, closer to the top of your head

You are skiing fast and aggressively

You weigh more than average for your height

You plan to do the majority of your skiing off the trail

You are purchasing a ski with significant rocker in the tip

A shorter ski will be easier to turn yet not as stable as a longer ski
